

NOT THIS SESSION.

The House Coinage committee has informally decided to report the Free Coinage bill to the House, this week. It is expected that the majority of the committee will recommend against any further Silver Legislation, instead of presenting a substitute for the Free Coinage bill as it was supposed would be done. This change of programme was probably made for two reasons. First, the President has given several prominent Republican Senators to understand that he would refuse to sign any silver bill, no matter what its character might be, at the present session, because he thinks the present silver law has not been in operation long enough to demonstrate the necessity for further Silver Legislation. Second, this method will prevent the bill going on the House calendar, and will make it impossible, without the adoption of a special rule, to call up the bill unless a majority of the coinage committee give their consent.

The Free Coinage men who repeat any modification of the bill a few weeks ago are now trying to make a combination in support of an amendment limiting free coinage to silver of American production. Two weeks ago they might have succeeded, but now it is almost impossible. It is about as certain as anything in the future can be, that there will be no Silver Legislation at this Session.

Since the above was written the Committee reported against the bill.

Sacramento (Cal.) News: It is evident that the leaders of the Republican party are determined to discard President Harrison.

The plea of grandfather's hat will not win him a nomination next time. Harrison has been a disappointment to the men of his party all over the country. The Easterners do not like him because he is not sufficiently tractable in matters of patronage, and the Westerners owe him nothing but ill will, because he has systematically ignored them in all important matters. The secret of the action of the Force bill is thus explained. The silver Senators knew that Harrison was in favor of the measure, and therefore they did all they could to defeat it.

The APPEAL is indebted to Fish Commissioner Mills for his Biennial Report. Mr. Mills has made a good Commissioner, but it would do no harm if the Legislature were to enlarge the scope of his powers that the game and fish of the State might be further protected.

Mrs. Crocker has advertised her house for sale and will leave Sacramento. She decided on this sudden step, it is claimed, because the jury refused to commit Mrs. Gillig's maid of theft. Mrs. Gillig is Mrs. Crocker's daughter.

A Chance for Somebody.
